Washinoton, Dec. 5.—Havana news occasions much excitement to-day. Speculation is rife as to the result of the delay in the surrender of the Virginius. The Commission to-day consulted the President of the washing to the washing to the Castelar of the washing the Castelar of the washingt of Commission to-day consulted the President on the subject. It is thought the Castelar government will acknowledge its inability to enforce its orders in Cuba, and will countenance the seizure of the Virginius by the United States in the harbor of Havana. There is no thought of this government receding from the position taken.

Diplomatic circles are not so confident as they were a few days ago that Spain can carry out its orders. The suggestion for a modification of the Protocol so that the Virginius can be delivered to a third party.
